Re: AB 215 (Chiu): Housing Element. Regional Housing Need. Relative Progress Determination.

As amended on April 5, 2021 – Notice of Opposition

Dear Senator Wiener,

The City of Garden Grove must respectfully oppose AB 215, which would create a new, mid-cycle regional housing needs progress determination process and mandate cities and counties with "low progress" in meeting those housing targets to consult with the California Department of Housing and Community Development (HCD) and adopt prohousing policies. Our chief concern is regarding the mandate to achieve HCD's designation as a "prohousing jurisdiction".

As you know, the 2019 Budget Act included language declaring it was the State's intent to incentivize jurisdictions to create prohousing environments at the local level through the form of additional points when applying for competitive housing and infrastructure grant programs. Specifically, the language directed HCD to promulgate emergency regulations no later than July 1, 2021, to establish a prohousing designation program that determines whether a city or county has enacted local policies and strategies to accelerate housing development. AB 215 turns what was intended only two years ago to be an incentive program into a mandatory requirement for cities and counties to adopt state-supported policies and strategies regardless of whether those policies and strategies would result in increased housing development in a given community, whether those policies and strategies are appropriate for the type of community (e.g. urban, suburban, rural), and whether those policies and strategies are supported by the community.

Earlier this month, HCD released the proposed emergency regulations for the prohousing designation program and began the process to adopt them. While the emergency regulations appear to be flexible enough to allow many types of local jurisdictions to achieve the designation, we are concerned that the regulations appear to require direct financial subsidies of affordable housing projects in order to achieve the designation. While many jurisdictions help subsidize affordable housing with limited local funds, it may be difficult for jurisdictions with limited budgets or lower tax bases to meet this requirement.

In addition, we are concerned about the new mid-cycle housing element review process and question whether the "relative progress" metric it relies upon is well-calibrated to produce the intended outcome. California's regions are incredibly diverse, with significant variation in local economies. In most cases, a lower rate of "relative progress" toward RHNA goals will simply be a reflection of economic realities.

In cases where lack of housing construction is related to a jurisdiction failing to meet its housing element obligations, several recent changes in the law have given the State new enforcement tools. HCD can review any action or failure to act by a jurisdiction that is inconsistent with the jurisdiction's adopted housing element, including a failure to implement its housing element programs; revoke its prior findings that a jurisdiction's housing element is compliant; and refer a non-compliant jurisdiction to the Attorney General. The Attorney General, in turn, can bring the local agency to court to compel compliance with non-compliant jurisdictions becoming subject to significant fines. Rather than create a new mid-cycle housing element review process that is unlikely to be exclusively targeted at jurisdictions that are failing to meet their obligations, the State should remain focused on using the tools in existing law to promote housing element adoption and implementation.

We are committed to helping the State meet its housing goals, however, we cannot support the transition of an incentive-based approach to a mandatory HCD program. For these reasons, the City of Garden Grove opposes AB 215.

Sincerely,

Steve Jones

minutes and under Section 5.3, the contractor's dispatcher shall notify the Police Department when a tow vehicle cannot respond immediately, give the reason for the delay, and an estimated time of arrival. Additionally, under Section 23.8, pertaining to Contractor's conduct and grounds for termination of the contract, it is noted that fees in excess of the scheduled rates approved by the GGPD cannot be charged. During the hearing, both oral testimony and written documentation were provided showing response time and fee discrepancies.

- A copy of the City of Garden Grove Request for Proposals (RFP No. S-1260, Provide Police Rotational Towing and Storage Services to the City of Garden Grove on an On-Call Basis) was provided. Under Part D, page 9, it states that the award of the contract is not subject to public bidding statutes and that "the City reserves the right to determine whether or not a proposal meets the specifications and requirements of this RFP and reject any proposal that, in the City's opinion, fails to meet the detail and intent of the requirements."
- A copy of the Rating Sheet for GSCT was provided. Under Part C: Programs/Training/Records and Experience/Reputation/Compliance, GSCT was given a fail score based on failure in the history of performance and prior administrative complaints categories. The reason for the failing score is documented on the rating sheet as follows: "Greater Southern California Towing was found to be in violation of section 23.8 of Attachment "A" of the previous contract with the City of Garden Grove. Section 23.8 specifies: It shall be grounds for termination of the contract, if the contractor has charged fees in excess of the schedule rates approved by the police department for rotation tow services or in excess of any Federal, State, County or City laws or regulations for towing and/or storage of vehicles or any service incidental to towing."
- A copy of an email complaint against GSCT regarding fraudulent charges dated 9/17/19, by Joe Collins was provided. Based on the complaint, GGPD conducted an investigation for which body camera video was provided. The body camera video taken by GGPD Corporal Capps contains an acknowledgement by GSCT that overcharging had occurred, which was attributed to a misinterpretation of the billing provisions pertaining to the minimum service charge by GSCT. Following subsequent review of past billing invoices, a number of overcharges were found for which GSCT later issued refunds.
- A copy of GGPD dispatch documentation from the period 4/5/19 to 2/21/18 was provided illustrating multiple contractual performance deficiencies by GSCT. GGPD Officer Danny Mihalik read through the documentation noting the various deficiencies including: asked for two trucks with only one showing up, driver arrived late/beyond the contract allowed time on multiple occasions, several impound forms were missing dates and times.
- A copy of a past due City of Garden Grove Invoice to GSCT (Number 219-20-B) was provided. The invoice in the amount of $24,280.73 was due for payment for damages to City property by GSCT on 5/3/20 but was not paid until 6/16/21, after going to collections. Because the invoice went to collections, the City incurred a 21% cost/loss.

Philip Green, Legal Council for GSCT, provided the following evidence/follow-up discussion:

- The specific complaint pertaining to the overcharging occurred in September 2019, yet the contract was continued through its conclusion in February 2020 without further communication by the City that the complaint would affect the RFP evaluation. It was noted that GSCT misunderstood the billing criteria and as soon as the criteria was clarified, GSCT changed their conduct. As a result, there were no further billing complaints from that point forward.
- Similarly, it was noted that there was no administrative procedure or communication back to GSCT from the City that their tow truck were running late; therefore GSCT was not made aware of the violations so that they could fix the problem.
- GSCT believes the service concerns came out of nowhere and they were not provided sufficient opportunity to respond.

In light of all the evidence presented, I have determined to uphold the decision by the Garden Grove Police Department not to award Greater Southern California Towing (GSCT) a contract for rotational police towing services. This decision is in response to violations of the GGMC Section 5.52.360 pertaining to response times and violations of regulations within the previous contract for rotational towing and storage services, including section 23.8 of Attachment "A". This decision is supported by the documentary evidence provided during the hearing and cited above. It is the contractor's responsibility to meet its terms of the contract and ensure the City is satisfied with the contractor's performance. The City is not required to follow-up with the contractor to ensure contract terms are met. In this case, the City chose to let the contract expire and consider performance history in its decision not to award a new contract.

- Santa Ana and GGSD staff agreed on the areas and contents of the shared sewer agreement. The final draft has been reviewed by attorneys. Santa Ana City Council approved the shared sewer agreement in August 2017. GGSD Board approved the agreement in October 2017.

City of Orange

- Water Services has initiated the conversation with City of Orange to draft a share sewer agreement. We have researched with the City Clerk to see if there is any existing share sewer agreement. The City Clerk did not find any.

Dear Mayor Jones:

We are pleased to notify you that your comprehensive annual financial report for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2020 qualifies for GFOA's Certificate of Achievement for Excellence in Financial Reporting. When a Certificate of Achievement is awarded to a government, an Award of Financial Reporting Achievement (AFRA) is also presented to the individual(s) or department designated by the government as primarily responsible for its having earned the Certificate. This award has been sent to the submitter as designated on the application.

We hope that you will arrange for a formal presentation of the Certificate and Award of Financial Reporting Achievement, and give appropriate publicity to this notable achievement. A sample news release is included to assist with this effort.

We hope that your example will encourage other government officials in their efforts to achieve and maintain an appropriate standard of excellence in financial reporting.

Breaking News: Governor Extends Secured Property Tax Penalty Cancellations Deadline for Homeowners & Small Businesses to June 30th

SANTA ANA, Calif.-Governor Gavin Newsom just signed a number of executive order extensions, including one that has extended a prior order affecting property taxes that expired on May 6. This new order extends the deadline for submitting the Secured Property Tax Penalty Cancellation Request Form and payment of base property taxes for homeowners and small businesses that were unable to deliver payment by May 6 due to an impact from COVID-19. The order extends the deadline to submit these penalty cancellation request forms and pay base secured property taxes to June 30, 2021.

The Governor's new executive orders provide for penalty cancellations for eligible homeowners and small businesses that were unable to deliver their secured property tax payments timely this past year if they have been directly affected by COVID-19 or suffered a financial hardship from COVID-19. Eligible property owners should complete and submit the standard Penalty Cancellation request form, describing the impact from COVID-19 and any related back-up, by the June 30, 2021 deadline. They also need to identify if they are a homeowner or a small business on the form, which can be found on the Treasurer-Tax Collector website. Homeowners and small businesses that have already paid their secured property taxes including penalties, can complete the same form, describe the direct impact from COVID-19 and if approved, can receive a refund of the penalties.

"This extension allows eligible property owners additional time to file the required forms and related documentation and pay base secured property taxes up until June 30, 2021," said Orange County Treasurer Shari Freidenrich. "Property owners that were unable to pay their FY 2020-21 secured property tax payments by either December 10 and/or April 12 as a result of being directly affected by COVID-19 or suffered a financial hardship as a result of COVID-19 should submit a penalty cancellation request by June 30."

Examples of direct impacts due to COVID-19 may include: illness, hospitalization, quarantine, loss of employment or business closures. Examples of documentation include hospitalization records, doctor's notes, employment notifications due to a business closure, layoff notices, rent receipt postponement notices/waivers, CA EDD Unemployment Insurance claim letters, etc. Go to ttc.ocgov.com and click on the penalty cancellation icon for further details.

If you were not impacted by COVID-19 and are unable to pay your secured property taxes, a taxpayer can initiate a five-year payment plan on July 1, 2021 for any delinquent secured property taxes. Details for this are at ttc.ocgov.com and then click on installment payment plans under the Popular section of the webpage.

If you have payment questions, please email ttcinfo@ttc.ocgov.com, or call (714) 834- 3411 between 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. PST.

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA GAS COMPANY NOTIFICATION OF REQUEST FOR COMPENSATION THROUGH THE GAS COST INCENTIVE MECHANISM
A.21-06-010

WHY AM I RECEIVING THIS NOTICE?

On June 15, 2021, Southern California Gas Company (SoCalGas®) filed an Application (A.21-06-010) with the California Public Utilities Commission (CPUC) to request approval of its management of savings incurred during the purchase of natural gas for its customers.

Natural gas purchases are reviewed through a mechanism referred to as the Gas Cost Incentive Mechanism (GCIM). The CPUC authorized the GCIM as a means of encouraging utilities to seek the best rates available for natural gas. Under the GCIM, a target price is set and if the utility secures a better rate, the savings is shared with customers and shareholders. If a higher rate is paid, the utility must absorb a portion of the higher rate. SoCalGas shares the savings with its “Core” customers, that is, customers who rely on the utility for all their natural gas needs, including both gas transportation and gas commodity service.

WHY IS SOCALGAS REQUESTING COMPENSATION?

In the latest GCIM year, SoCalGas purchased natural gas at $184.7 million below the target price during the program period of April 1, 2020, to March 31, 2021. Using the CPUC’s formula to determine the incentive for purchasing gas below the target price, SoCalGas has calculated an $11.1 million allocation for its shareholders. This means that these purchases provided customers a benefit of $173.6 million in lower gas costs. In this application, SoCalGas requests that the CPUC approve SoCalGas’ shareholder allocation of $11.1 million.

HOW COULD THIS AFFECT MY MONTHLY GAS BILL?

A typical residential customer’s average monthly bill for 35 therms of gas has already increased by 11 cents/month, from $52.16 to $52.27. A typical residential customer’s monthly summer bill for 23 therms of gas has already increased by 7 cents/month, from $35.60 to $35.67. The impact on each customer and customer class has varied depending on individual usage. If the CPUC approves SoCalGas’ request, there will be no additional change in customer rates from this application. If the CPUC approves a different allocation for SoCalGas shareholders, the difference will be credited or charged to customers through a rate change in future months.

HOW DOES THE REST OF THIS PROCESS WORK?

This Application will be assigned to a CPUC Administrative Law Judge who will consider proposals and evidence presented during the formal hearing process. The Administrative Law Judge will issue a proposed decision that may adopt SoCalGas’ Application, modify it, or deny it. Any CPUC Commissioner may sponsor an alternate decision with a different outcome. The proposed decision, and any alternate decisions, will be discussed and voted upon by the CPUC Commissioners at a public CPUC Voting Meeting.

Parties to the proceeding are currently reviewing SoCalGas' Application, including the Public Advocates Office, which is an independent consumer advocate within the CPUC that represents customers to obtain the lowest possible rate for service consistent with reliable and safe service levels. For more information about the Public Advocates Office, please call 1-415-703-1584, email PublicAdvocatesOffice@cpuc.ca.gov, or visit PublicAdvocates.cpuc.ca.gov.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION OF SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA EDISON COMPANY
TO DECREASE ELECTRIC RATES
APPLICATION A.21-06-003

Why am I receiving this notice?

On June 1, 2021, Southern California Edison Company (SCE) filed its application with the California Public Utilities Commission (CPUC) requesting review and approval of its 2022 Energy Resource Recovery Account (ERRA) Revenue Requirement Forecast Application (ERRA Forecast Application or Application). SCE’s proposed ERRA Forecast-related required revenue for 2022 is $3.991 billion. This is a decrease of $538.0 million for 2022 as compared to SCE’s 2021 ERRA Forecast-related required revenue.

Why is SCE requesting this rate decrease?

- The Application seeks a review and approval of SCE’s estimate of the costs for fuel and power that will be needed to provide electricity for SCE’s customers in 2022.
- The Application is subject to change when SCE submits an updated forecast to the Commission in November 2021, which may reduce the amount of the decrease or result in a rate increase.
- The Application also requests approval of other expenses recoverable in ERRA Forecast proceedings, such as expenses related to spent nuclear fuel (stored nuclear fuel that has already been used); and SCE’s return of $432.3 million in Greenhouse Gas (GHG) allowance revenues to eligible customers in 2022.

How could this affect my monthly electric rates?

If SCE’s rate request is approved, the average residential monthly bill using 500 kWh per month would decrease by approximately $0.09 or 4.9% per month in 2022.

CUSTOMER BILL IMPACT TABLE

| Customer Group | System | | |
|-----------------------------------|--------------------------|---------------------------------|-------------------------------|
| | Current Revenues ($000) | Proposed Revenue Change ($000) | % Revenue Change Over Current |
| Residential | 5,569,343 | $ (580,690) | -10.4% |
| Lighting - Small and Medium Power | 4,465,867 | $ (29,251) | -0.7% |
| Large Power | 2,063,323 | $ 56,572 | 2.7% |
| Agricultural and Pumping | 512,597 | $ 22,411 | 4.4% |
| Street and Area Lighting | 131,994 | $ (5,977) | -4.5% |
| Standby | 365,286 | $ (1,032) | -0.3% |
| Total | 13,108,411 | $ (537,967) | -4.1% |

| Customer Group | Bundled | | |
|-----------------------------------|---------------------|----------------------|----------------------------|
| | Current Rates ¢/kWh | Proposed Rates ¢/kWh | % Rate Change Over Current |
| Residential | 22.2 | 21.1 | -4.9% |
| Lighting - Small and Medium Power | 21.6 | 21.4 | -0.7% |
| Large Power | 14.8 | 14.7 | -1.0% |
| Agricultural and Pumping | 17.4 | 17.7 | 2.1% |
| Street and Area Lighting | 24.2 | 26.0 | 7.5% |
| Standby | 12.1 | 12.3 | 1.6% |
| Total | 19.9 | 19.3 | -3.1% |

This Application and the projected rate decrease described in this notice is a forecast and is likely to change prior to including these costs in SCE's 2022 rates. Consistent with past ERRRA Forecast applications, SCE expects to update this Application in November 2021, so that the latest forecast assumptions can be incorporated into SCE's 2022 rates.

How does the rest of this process work?

The Application will be assigned to a CPUC Administrative Law Judge who will consider proposals and evidence presented during the formal hearing process. The Administrative Law Judge will issue a proposed decision that may adopt SCE's application, modify it, or deny it. Any CPUC Commissioner may sponsor an alternate decision with a different outcome. The proposed decision, and any alternate decisions, will be discussed and voted upon by the CPUC Commissioners at a public CPUC Voting Meeting.

Parties to the proceeding are currently reviewing SCE's application, including the Public Advocates Office, which is an independent consumer advocate within the CPUC that represents customers to obtain the lowest possible rate for service consistent with reliable and safe service levels. For more information about the Public Advocates Office, please call 1-415-703-1584, email PublicAdvocatesOffice@cpuc.ca.gov, or visit PublicAdvocates.cpuc.ca.gov.

WEEKLY MEMO 6-24-2021

NEWS ARTICLES

OC supervisors will ask voters to adjust term limit rules later this year

If approved, the new rules could help current supervisors keep their jobs longer.

By ALICIA ROBINSON | arobinson@scng.com | The Orange County Register
PUBLISHED: June 23, 2021 at 6:22 p.m. | UPDATED: June 23, 2021 at 6:29 p.m.

An idea that never quite seems to die – changing the limit on Orange County supervisors' service from two back-to-back terms to three lifetime terms – has reared its head again, just as two current board members are set to hit the limit in the next few years.

Since 1996, county supervisors have been permitted two consecutive four-year terms, after which they must leave office for a time before they're eligible to run for a board seat again. The proposed change, which must be approved by voters, would impose a lifetime cap of three terms.

Supporters of the measure say it would help ensure eventual turnover on the board while allowing supervisors to build experience and relationships that can make them more effective legislators. Critics see the measure as misleading to voters and self-serving, noting that the same officials backing the idea would get to run for reelection if it passes.

On Tuesday, June 22, supervisors agreed to put the measure on a special election ballot that will be held later this year, when voters statewide will decide on the possible recall of Gov. Gavin Newsom. The 3-2 vote drew support from board Chairman Andrew Do (currently termed out in 2024), Lisa Bartlett (termed out in 2022) and Doug Chaffee (whose first term ends next year), and opposition from Don Wagner (whose first full term ends in 2024) and Katrina Foley (who won a special election in March).

Do and Bartlett pointed out that a three-term limit would put the county on par with the rules for state legislators and with the rules of some other California counties. Bartlett added that in counties with no term limits some supervisors serve for decades even though voters “want to see a rotation.”

“What’s good enough for the state, and good enough for many other counties, why wouldn’t it be good for us?” Do said.

If approved, it appears the new rules would only apply going forward, meaning current and past supervisors could serve up to three additional terms.

The only former county supervisor who has left for another position and returned to win a supervisor’s seat again is Todd Spitzer, currently the county’s District Attorney. But Wagner said the example that illustrates why the rule change isn’t necessary is former supervisor John Moorlach, who finished two terms as supervisor in 2014 and went to the state legislature, then lost a bid for the District 2 supervisor seat to Foley in the March 2021 special election.

“The public chose to put someone else in his place,” Wagner said of Moorlach. “We didn’t need term limits. We didn’t need this initiative in place.”

The debate over term limits isn’t new. In 2012, Moorlach pitched a similar idea but the board majority said no. In 2016, former Supervisor Shawn Nelson brought it up again, but yanked the proposal over a lack of support. And as recently as July 2020, Bartlett and Chaffee put a new term limit proposal on the agenda, though it was removed before coming to a public discussion or vote.

The 2020 proposal specifically said anyone who had already served two terms on the board could run for one more. The measure added to the agenda by the county’s attorney doesn’t make that distinction.

Political observers from both ends of the spectrum said the term-limit proposal looks to them like a last-ditch effort by politicians hoping to extend their own careers.

Jim Righeimer, a former Costa Mesa mayor who is active in county GOP politics, said that because it's harder for a newcomer to beat an incumbent any extension of term limits is essentially job protection for sitting supervisors.

He speculated that the measure might pass because it will be on a special election ballot, when turnout typically is low, but "anybody who knows what it is, is not going to vote for it."

Chapman University political science professor Fred Smoller said term limits typically have been popular with voters, who tend to view long-serving politicians as entrenched and less responsive to constituents. And when combined with the fact that supervisors will use 2020 census data to redraw their own districts later this year — a process that is required by law — Smoller suggested the new term limit proposal could be viewed negatively by some voters.

"Does it look untoward?" Smoller said. "Sure it does."

Chaffee said Tuesday that voters can reject the idea, and that the measure doesn't change the fact that supervisors who want to keep serving would have to win reelection.

"I'm only suggesting that this is something that people can decide," he said.

"It's a message to us if it's rejected."

Lee's Sandwiches reaches plea agreement after 2015 recall of almost 600,000 pounds of food

Popular Vietnamese American restaurant chain made changes following recall.

PUBLISHED: June 17, 2021 at 5:13 p.m. | UPDATED: June 18, 2021 at 12:47 p.m.

Six years after Lee's Sandwiches recalled nearly 600,000 pounds of chicken, beef and pork, its affiliated company has reached an agreement with federal officials and plead guilty to distributing uninspected meat.

The popular Vietnamese American fast food chain, known for its sweet coffee, pastries and sandwiches, was placed on probation for four years and fined $250,000 in a March 18 judgment filed in federal court in Santa Ana.

In a plea agreement reached with federal authorities, San Jose-based LQNN, Inc., an affiliate of Lee's Sandwiches, pleaded guilty to eight misdemeanor counts of sale and transportation or offering to sell or transport, uninspected meat and poultry products.

The case did not involve customer complaints, federal officials said, but was the result of an unannounced inspection in 2015 at the company's former kitchen at 7180 Lampson Avenue in Garden Grove.

Chen Le, one of the owners, said that the case had “nothing to do with consumer safety” or food quality.

Instead, the company faced charges for the way it repackaged food and bore unauthorized USDA marks of inspection on food packages that had not been inspected.

Le said the prepackaging included breaking up five-pound packages of meat approved by the United States Department of Agriculture into smaller one-pound packages to be distributed to its restaurants across California and other states.

“They said, ‘you cannot repackage meat,’” Le said Thursday. “We agree with that. And we stopped doing that in 2015.”

Joshua Robbins, an attorney for the company, said the case was dormant until the latter part of 2019, when the statute of limitations neared and negotiations between both sides resumed.

“It was a technical regulatory violation that occurred over six years ago and didn’t involve any actual food safety issues, but did involve a breach of a regulatory inspection requirement and as soon as they were informed of that, they corrected it,” Robbins said.

A USDA spokesman on Thursday could not say whether the case was typical or unusual.

When the recall was first reported in 2015, it involved 213,000 pounds of meat, or about 100 tons of food. That number was later updated to 598,374 pounds.

“Products produced without inspection present potential of increased human health risk,” USDA officials wrote in a June 5, 2015 update that included a list of recalled items, including more than 100,000 pounds of pork and chicken pate used in savory puff pastries.

There are some 60 Lee’s Sandwiches in California, Arizona, Nevada, Oklahoma, Oregon and Texas. Most are franchise-owned, but the family business retains ownership of 10 stores, Le said.

As part of the judgment, LQNN is barred from preparing, processing or manufacturing meat or poultry products for four years, according to court documents. But customer favorites are still made, just not at the LQNN-operated facility in Garden Grove, which Le said now operates as a warehouse and distribution center. Some items, such as spring rolls, are made at an USDA-inspected Lee’s Brothers facility in San Jose, then shipped to LQNN in Garden Grove and distributed from there to individual Lee’s Sandwiches stores, Le said. Other items, like pate chaud, are prepared at the stores, she said.

“This all happened in 2015,” Le said. “Since then, everything is going well. I’m very proud and lucky and thankful that customers always support our stores.”

SB 9 advances out of committee despite stiff opposition from Cal Cities, city officials, and community voices

The Assembly Housing and Community Development Committee passed SB 9 on a 5-1 vote, with two abstaining

June 23, 2021

Lead opposition testimony was provided by Blanca Pacheco, the mayor pro tem of Downey and the president of Cal Cities' Los Angeles County Division.

Despite fervent testimony by Pacheco and others, the bill passed out of the Housing and Community Development Committee on a 5-1 vote, with two abstaining.

SB 9 (Atkins), as presently drafted, would require cities to ministerially approve, without condition, discretion, or public input, a housing development containing two residential units on an individual parcel in single-family neighborhoods. Additionally, the measure would require local governments to ministerially approve an urban lot split, thus creating two independent lots that may be sold separately.

More than 175 cities have submitted letters of opposition or oppose unless amended since the bill's introduction.

During a passionate testimony, Pacheco stated, "Cal Cities and the city of Downey have persistently pursued solutions to the housing supply and affordability crisis that is gripping many regions of the state. Unfortunately, SB 9 will not spur the much-needed housing construction we need and certainly not in a manner that supports local flexibility, decision-making, and community input."

SB 9's top-down, one-size-fits-all approach disregards existing, in-progress housing plans that will identify sites for more than two million new homes over the next eight years. It is certain to disrupt cities like Downey trying to implement their state-certified housing plans. For example, Downey's eight-year housing projection plan — which will commence in January 2022 — has risen to 6,525 units, up from 1,457. Furthermore, the measure mandates more housing in existing single-family zones without any evidence that it would result in more affordable housing. Housing affordability and homelessness are among the most critical issues facing California's cities. Affordably priced homes are out of reach for many people and housing is not being built fast enough to meet the current or projected needs of people living in the state.

Cal Cities worked with the author for several months on amendments that would have addressed cities' primary concerns, including limiting property owners to two additional residential units, clarifying the bill's language to prevent abuse by large-scale investors and builders, and prohibiting the use of SB 9 in very high fire hazard severity zones.

The bill now moves to the Assembly Committee on Appropriations. Cities are urged to continue to oppose the measure, and to share their concerns with their legislators.

Cities concerned about SB 9 should also consider opposing AB 215 (Chiu) – the subject of a recent Action Alert – which would create a new, mid-cycle regional housing needs progress determination process. It would require cities and counties with “low progress” to consult with the California Department of Housing and Community Development (HCD) and adopt pro-housing policies. Another one-size-fits-all approach, AB 215 turns what was intended only two years ago to be an incentive program into a mandatory requirement for cities to adopt state-supported policies and strategies.

Cal Cities, along with a team of city finance professionals and the California Society of Municipal Finance Officers (CSMFO), created a revenue loss calculation tool to help cities determine their American Rescue Plan Act (ARPA) allocation spends. The tool incorporates the latest Treasury Department's Guidance and its applicability to local government finance in California as understood by our team of finance professionals. Two versions of the calculator have been prepared to support cities' choice to use fund basis (modified accrual) or government-wide (full accrual) financial records.

- Revenue Loss Calculator \(Fund Basis - Modified Accrual\)

The calculator will be updated and improve as Treasury Department guidance evolves. Cities will be able to calculate revenue at multiple points throughout the program. Read the full update

Important American Rescue Plan deadline for non-entitlement cities

June 23, 2021

Non-entitlement cities have until tonight, June 23 at 11:59 p.m., to access the American Rescue Plan Request for Fund Portal. Non-entitlement cities must access the portal to receive their first tranche of funds.

The California Department of Finance (DOF) plans to submit a list to the State Controller's Office this week to disburse the funds. Those that do not make that cutoff will go in the second group. (DOF is currently targeting a mid-July second allocation schedule.) If you are having difficulties uploading your required documents, DOF has suggested the following fixes:

- Make sure there are no special characters in the file names of your attachments.
- Enter budget numbers as whole dollars — no decimal points.

Additionally, the League of California Cities has updated its revenue loss calculation tool, which incorporates the latest Treasury Department's Guidance and its applicability to local government finance in California as understood by our team of finance professionals. Two versions have been prepared to support cities' choice to use fund basis (modified accrual) or government-wide (full accrual) financial records.

Eligible criteria update

In a major win for local governments, the U.S. Department of the Treasury's new American Rescue Plan guidance expands the eligible areas for broadband infrastructure investment. The previous definition of "unserved or underserved" areas was too restrictive and based on Federal Communications Commission data, which is not always accurate.

The new guidance stipulates that cities may invest in areas where not all households or businesses are unserved or underserved, if an objective of the project is to provide service to unserved or underserved households or businesses. Furthermore, the use of "reliably" in the provision 6.11 of the Interim Final Rule (IFR) grants cities significant discretion when assessing the actual experience of users on the ground. Finally, the new guidance states that recipients may use the funds for costly "middle mile" projects. More information is available in section 6 of the Treasury Department's FAQ.

The latest update also includes additional clarification on points raised by multiple stakeholders, including:

- Demonstrating negative economic impact for household and business assistance
- Use of funds for investment in outdoor spaces
- Use of funds to address a backlog in court cases
- Use of funds to assist business startups
- Use of funds to prevent and respond to crime and support public safety
- Use of funds for pre-project development for water/sewer/broadband infrastructure
- Treatment of federal funds in intergovernmental revenue when calculating general revenue for the purpose of identifying revenue loss

The updated document also includes an appendix with a diagram of the Interim Final Rule's definition of General Revenue within the Census Bureau's classification structure, and an FAQ focused on how funds can support a holistic approach to public safety.

New reporting guidance for metropolitan cities and webinars

The Treasury Department released Compliance and Reporting Guidance for metropolitan cities. The guidance, which builds on the IFR issued on May 10, requires program and performance reporting to build public awareness, increase accountability, and monitor compliance of eligible uses. It provides additional details about each recipient's compliance and reporting responsibilities under the Coronavirus State and Local Fiscal Recovery Funds.

This week, the Treasury Department will host 30-minute introductory briefings for city officials. The following sessions are still available:

- Metropolitan cities and counties with a population that exceeds 250,000 residents
 - Thursday, June 24 at 10:30 a.m. PT
- Metropolitan cities and counties with a population below 250,000 residents which received more than $5 million in SLFRF funding
 - Thursday, June 24 at 9 a.m. PT
 - Friday, June 25 at 10:30 a.m. PT
