

Resolution
B&C Italian Tailors and Clothiers
June 2009 Business Spotlight Honoree

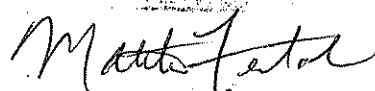

- WHEREAS, For nearly 50 years, B&C Italian Tailors and Clothiers has been part of the fabric of the Garden Grove community; and
- WHEREAS, When he was 11 years old, Tony Lalama, proprietor of B&C Italian Tailors and Clothiers, became a tailor's apprentice in Pacentro, Italy; and
- WHEREAS, B&C Italian Tailors and Clothiers is currently located at 12093 Brookhurst Street and has been in the same shopping center on the corner of Brookhurst Street and Chapman Avenue since 1965; and
- WHEREAS, A year after opening his business in Garden Grove, he was drafted and served in the Army for two years; and
- WHEREAS, His esteemed clientele list includes the Garden Grove Elks, the Garden Grove Chamber of Commerce, the Garden Grove Police Department, and former and current Garden Grove City Council members; and
- WHEREAS, B&C Italian Tailors and Clothiers is one of few merchant tailors in the city, altering, reconstructing, and making suits and the like from scratch, as well as offering the latest in men's Italian wear; and
- WHEREAS, Over the years, B&C Italian Tailors and Clothiers has adapted to the new style of shoppers, yet is still dedicated to serving its long-time customers; and
- WHEREAS, Tony Lalama of B&C Italian Tailors and Clothiers produces excellent work that is a result of his careful attention to detail on every article of clothing brought to his shop.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the City of Garden Grove does hereby venerably honor B&C Italian Tailors and Clothiers for their loyalty and outstanding care toward its customers in the community.

June 9, 2009

William J. Dalton, Mayor

Recommended for Approval

Matthew Ferial
City Manager